

LITIGATING

Washington

A PUBLIC INTEREST LAW FIRM

WLF brings original lawsuits, files amicus briefs, intervenes in court cases, and petitions agencies for rulings. Since our founding, we have litigated more than 1,262 court cases, participated in 784 administrative and regulatory proceedings, initiated 138 judicial misconduct investigations, and filed more than 165 attorney and reform actions and petitions.

PUBLISHING

Legal

A LEGAL THINK TANK

WLF publishes timely legal studies in seven highly regarded formats, written by expert authors. Through target marketing, our publications reach judges, federal and state legislators, executive branch officials, business leaders, the media, students, professors, and national decision-makers. To date, we have produced more than 2,300 publications.

COMMUNICATING

A NONPROFIT COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY

WLF's broad-based communications outreach program disseminates our free enterprise message through print and electronic media, public education advertising campaigns, and on-site seminars and briefings. WLF also publishes its opinion editorials, "In All Fairness," in The New York Times, which reaches seventy major media markets, and is read by ninety percent of America's major newspaper editors.

Foundation

KEEPING FREE ENTERPRISE FREE

RESPECTED, NATIONAL, UNIQUE. Established in 1977, WLF shapes public policy and fights activist lawyers, regulators, and intrusive government agencies at the federal and state levels, and in the courts and regulatory agencies across the country. WLF is classified as a national, non-profit, tax-exempt public foundation under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.