

WLF Webinar Series

Speakers' Biographies

James M. Beck is Senior Life Sciences Policy Analyst at Reed Smith LLP in the firm's Philadelphia, PA office. He handles complex personal-injury and product-liability litigation and has overseen the development of legal defenses, master briefs, and dispositive motions in numerous mass torts. Mr. Beck is a member of the Product Liability Advisory Committee and has sat on its case selection committee since 1997. He is also the founder and co-host of the award-winning Drug & Medical Device Law blog.

Phil Goldberg is Managing Partner of the Washington, DC office of Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P., where he practices in the Public Policy Group. He also co-chairs the firm's National Amicus Practice. Mr. Goldberg has testified before state legislatures, authored legal scholarship, and spoken at judicial and attorney conferences on some of the highest profile liability issues in the last decade. In 2015, he was named the director of the Progressive Policy Institute's Center for Civil Justice, and is also a member of the American Law Institute.