

WLF Webinar Series

Speakers' Biographies

Homer E. Moyer, Jr. is a Member of Miller & Chevalier in the firm's Washington, D.C. office. Mr. Moyer is the architect of the firm's preeminent international practice and is regarded as one of the country's leading Foreign Corrupt Practices Act lawyers. He is a past Chair of the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association and was the first chair of the Anti-Corruption Committee of the International Bar Association. Mr. Moyer has served as an FCPA Independent Compliance Monitor and has chaired more than 30 anti-corruption conferences in the United States and Europe. He has authored several Washington Legal Foundation publications on anti-corruption enforcement, including a Winter 2006 CONVERSATIONS WITH paper that documented a discussion between Mr. Moyer, former Chairman of the Federal Reserve Paul A. Volker, and former Attorney General of the U.S. Dick Thornburgh.

Lucinda A. Low is a Partner with Steptoe & Johnson LLP in its Washington, D. C. office. She is a member of the firm's Management Committee and head of the Compliance, Investigations, Trade and Enforcement Department. Ms. Low's practice focuses on U.S. and international anti-corruption laws, advising clients on matters ranging from preventive work to representation in internal investigations and enforcement matters worldwide. She is on the Board of Directors of Transparency International—USA, now known as the Coalition for Integrity, and also a member of the Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on International Law. She is President of the American Society of International Law and a former Chair of the ABA Section of International Law.